

Report of the Tax Collector
as of September 30, 2018

- As expected, September was a very slow month for collections. Deposits totaled $391.45, representing Hebron current year taxes of $165.59, prior year taxes of $100.68, interest of $21.04 and a $24.00 lien fee. On the Lebanon side there was a current year payment of $77.81 and $2.33 interest.
- Year to date collections are $118,406.57.
 - Hebron: $48,386.38;
 - Lebanon: $70,020.19.
- Current year uncollected taxes including the January installment: $44,63.59.
- Of the four delinquent properties to Adam Cohen for collection, two have paid in full and he will proceed with tax sales on the other two properties. Historically the delinquencies are settled before the auction date.
- The final exam for the CCMC IV certification course is Thursday, October 17th. The final certification course will be offered in the Spring of 2019.
- Anita received the 2016 Final Posted Ratebook from QDS.

Respectfully submitted,
